1 Q. So in your mind, start with your mind, leading up
2 to January 6 once whatever this last event was that closed
3 off the last legal avenue --

4 A. Mm-hmm.

5 Q. -- in your mind. What were the -- what was it
6 that you wanted to see the Proud Boys do?

7 A. Not necessarily the Proud Boys. I mean, I just
8 wanted to see America stand up.

9 Q. America stand up.

10 A. Yeah.

11 Q. Did you want to see the Proud Boys lead that 12 charge --

13 A. I'm sure, yeah. Definitely.

14 Q. -- inspired it?

15 A. Yeah, I'm pretty sure at that point that would
16 probably be my mindset, yeah.

17 Q. When you were talking about seeing -- saying
18 people need to get in the street, have their voices heard.

19 A. Mm-hmm.

20 Q. Are you talking about walking up and down the mall
21 with signs? Are you talking about something else?

22 A. I mean, if -- pretty much whatever it took to get
23 your voice heard is probably what I was thinking.

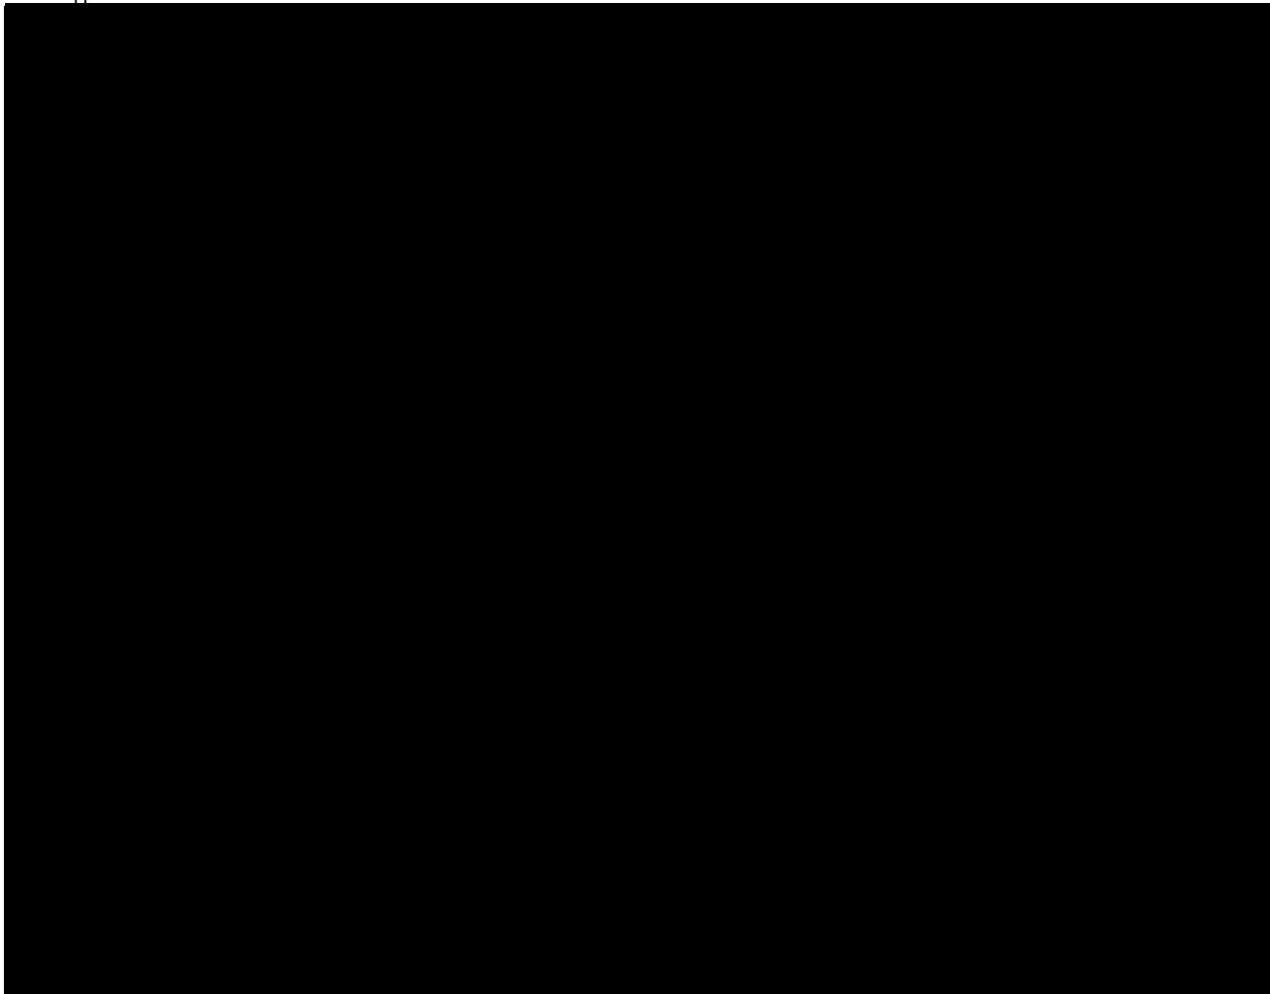

24 Q. So in other words, if walking up and down the mall
25 with signs got your voice heard and got the certification to

1 stop, great.

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. But if that doesn't work, then what?

4 A. I mean, I guess -- it's hard -- it's hard to
5 predict the next step because you never thought America, you
6 know, anybody would have had the balls to do what they did.
7 So, you know, like I never really thought past that because
8 that's all the rallies we'd ever done at that point has just 9 been, you go up there. You know, you might squabble with 10 Antifa. You go out there and you march and there's cameras.
11 And so --

13 Q. Okay. So as well as the idea that the Proud --
14 that you and the rest wanted the Proud Boys to kind of 15 inspire people to stand up for themselves, right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. And I think you had said, at some point,
18 words, you know, whatever it takes. (Indiscernible) had 19 asked you, was the goal when you went there, to protest, or 20 was it to stop the certification. I think you had said
21 stop.

22 A. Mm-hmm.

23 Q. Does the, whatever it takes, apply to that? In 24 other words, stop the certification whatever it takes.

25 A. I would say that would be the mindset at the time.

1 Yeah.

2 Q. And in your mind, what does, whatever it takes,
3 mean in that context?

4 A. I mean, I guess just -- I guess thinking that
5 people may be willing to go all the way at that point. And
6 I mean --

7 SA MILLER: All the way; what does that mean?

8 MR. BERTINO: I guess a revolution. People's
9 revolution. I guess -- would probably be what I would say.
10 By any means necessary. I guess that would encompass pretty
11 much doing anything, including up to what they did that day,
12 you know. So that was the thought of maybe the thought
13 process that that was what needed to happen.

14 AUSA KENERSON: And that was your thought process?

15 MR. BERTINO: Yeah. I would say it was pretty
16 much shared throughout the group. Yeah.
